

Vegie crop rotation

You can reduce the build up of diseases by rotating crops through four separate garden areas or beds ensuring that the same type of vegetable is never planted in the same area in consecutive seasons.

We recommend rotating your crops in this order:
legumes, foliage crops, fruit crops and finally root crops.

For more home grown ideas visit www.oasishorticulture.com.au

oasis® create your own

healthy lifestyle > healthy eating > part of your life